

Frequently Asked Questions

When should I apply for financial aid? Should I wait until my child is accepted?

You should apply for financial aid as soon as your child is accepted. If financial aid is awarded, your contract will be adjusted.

How do I apply for financial aid?

Maplebrook School uses the professional organization called School and Student Service for Financial Aid (SSS). This service provides Maplebrook's Scholarship Committee with the information needed to award scholarship monies in a fair and equitable manner. The forms are available through the admissions office.

Is there a fee to apply?

There is no fee to Maplebrook, however, there is an application fee for SSS.

What materials do I need to apply for financial aid?

Maplebrook School requires you to submit a letter identifying personal reasons and special circumstances that you believe make you eligible to receive an award. This letter should be accompanied by your most recent tax return. Do not send tax returns to SSS.

What are the deadlines for applying for financial aid?

Scholarship funds are limited. Completed forms and materials should be submitted prior to March 1st.

Who at the school makes financial aid decisions?

Maplebrook's Scholarship Committee reviews completed application materials and awards aid.

How and when will I be notified if I am eligible for financial aid?

You will be notified of the committee's decision in writing. Please keep in mind Maplebrook requires materials from SSS before the committee can make a decision. The processing time for SSS is about 4-6 weeks.

In many cases, tuition and boarding expenses at Maplebrook are tax-deductible as medical expenses. Whether these expenses will be deductible in a particular case will depend upon the facts and circumstances of each individual situation. It is recommended that parents seek advice from their tax consultant.
