

Maplebrook School, a nationally renowned boarding school founded in 1945, is at the forefront of educating youngsters with significant learning challenges. Faculty have designed programs to challenge and remediate academic skills as well as support the acquisition of social skills and integration of universally accepted values. Character development is in every fiber of our program. Choosing to remain small, Maplebrook is a community that values the individual, nourishes trust and confidence, promotes respect and understanding, and encourages participation.
