

Good morning.

I hope everyone is well. Just a quick reminder that we begin our family check in meetings today. They will be held on the zoom platform. Based on the survey sent out after our last meeting, we will hold meetings at 4:00 PM (EST) and 7:00 PM (EST) on Wednesdays and Fridays. I will provide links through the calendar on our website: <https://www.maplebrookschool.org/calendarreminders.html>
All you need to do is click on the link at the time that works best for your schedule.

Looking forward to connecting with you.

Meanwhile, this sums up how we feel about the students:

Best wishes,

Jenn Scully
